Under the re-organized scheme for Malaria control in the Province, the post of an Assistant Director of Public Health has been created as the head of the Bureau of Malariology and Mosquite-borne diseases in the Province. There is also provision for a Central malaria laboratory and Malaria Museum with facilities for field investigation and research and for training of departmental and other personnel in malariaology. The Assistant Director of Public Health is helped in this work by a First Class Health Officer as his Assistant and a Malaria Engineer and Senior Entemologist and other laboratory staff.

2. In view of the above, it is considered that the creation of a wholetime Professor of Malariology in the Medical Colleges may bedeferred for the present and the training of medical students in Malariology, assigned to the Assistant Director of Public Health (Malaria and Mosquito borne diseases). He will give the necessary course of thoretical and practical training in batches to the medical under-graduates in Madras and Stanley Medical Colleges in the first instance. He will also be responsible for the training in Malariology for the post-graduate students, viz. B,S.Sc. D.P.H. classes and also to the students of the Sanitary Inspectors' Class. This arragement is considered to be economical and will save duplication of staff that will be necessary if a wholetime Professor of Malariology is created.

3. In view of the specific addition to the duties of the Assistant Director of Public Health (Malaria) and the volume of such additional work if he were to be appointed as Professor of Malariology in addition to his present duties, it is essential that he be paid the same special pay that is at present admissibl e to non-clinical professors in Medical Colleges.
